

PROSPECTS FOR THE FALL
OUTLOOK VERY PROMISING FOR GENERAL TRADE.

Fancy and Dry-Goods Merchants, Clothing and Carpet Dealers All Agree That Business This Autumn Will Be More Than Usual Brisk.

The information furnished the public in the following statements made by the Times by men who have had varied experiences in the trade circles of Richmond, will be found to contain not only matter of interest but intelligence of the most cheerful character.

Our merchants are distinguished for their cool judgment and conservative methods of speech and business, and their expressions can always be relied upon as being well guarded facts. They are not by any means "boomers" in the sense in which that term is generally understood, and they are therefore not easily accepted, but they are true and honest workers, and by their business methods and fair dealing have won the confidence of the trade world.

There is therefore no fact that, of the number of men representing the various branches of mercantile interests in this city, none were found to croak or utter gloomy prophecies, and the expressions of opinion were all of a cheerful and optimistic nature. In some cases, a spirit of buoyant hope seemed prevalent. In some cases, it was intimated that the fall trade would be more than usual brisk, and in some cases, it was intimated that the fall trade would be more than usual brisk.

These facts speak for themselves, and suggest that the fall trade in this city is of such substantial structure as to warrant the building of the most sanguine expectations. The tightness of the money market, however, is not so much a factor in the retail world, one large dealer stating, in terms of elation, that he expects the fall trade to be more than usual brisk, and that he expects the fall trade to be more than usual brisk.

In the jobbing line the same spirit prevails, and the relations between buyer and dealer, to judge from present reports, are set down to be more than usual brisk. Therefore, we are sure that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk.

M. R. RAMES & CO., Merchants generally look forward to the fall and spring of each year for special activity in business circles. In my opinion this fall promises much for the Richmond trade. I am sure that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk.

Mr. Powhatan Brecken, of Brecken, Talley & Co., dry goods, said: "I am expecting a good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. Isaac Syde, of the firm of Isaac Syde & Co., dry goods, said: "We are expecting a good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. Henry Wenzel, of the firm of Henry Wenzel & Co., dry goods, said: "We are expecting a good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

Mr. James A. Grigg, of Grigg & Gross, retail dealers in boots, shoes, etc., said: "We expect a very good fall trade. I see no reason why the fall trade should not be more than usual brisk, and that the fall trade will be more than usual brisk."

GREAT DEAL IN TOBACCO
CAPITALIZATION OF HOUSES IN TWO BIG CITIES

About $5,000,000 Likely to be Put in the More, if Consummated—Cincinnati and Louisville Concerned Mainly in the Transaction.

"It will have no effect whatever on the tobacco market here so far as I can see. All tobacco is sold by sample on the hoghead at auction, and even in the West there could be no palpable effect if the deal were consummated. I deal a great deal in Western tobacco, and I had heard enough of this move already, but I don't attach any importance whatever to it so far as its effect on this market goes."

The above was said yesterday by Mr. W. H. Mallory, one of the leading tobacco dealers in Richmond, when he was shown the following article from a Memphis paper:

It is rumored that a new departure in the tobacco business of our city is among the probabilities, has given rise to considerable speculation within the tobacco trade, and that the city of Louisville has been a question with all except the magnates, who for reasons of their own have been inclined to ignore the move. It is true, however, the necessity for secrecy has been abated, and general conditions have been such as to make more easy the task of following the proposed project, which concerns one of the great branches of Cincinnati's industries.

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

HOW IT BEGAN.

But this is the way it began. Some three months ago Congressman Willis, of Kentucky, conceived the plan of consolidating the tobacco warehouses of Louisville into one big warehouse, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

Mr. J. H. Harrison, of the Globe Tobacco Warehouse, was met yesterday evening by the Commercial Gazette, and he was requested to enlighten the public as to what was going on. He expressed himself as follows: "Well," he remarked, "the situation is now pretty much the same as it has been for several months. I hardly believe it will work out into anything. It is quite indefinite and uncertain."

STOLE A MULE.
Henry Dickerson to Answer this Charge Before a Jury.

Henry Dickerson is a bright mule man, a North Carolinian, and the charge against him in the Police Court yesterday morning was horse theft. A fine mule, the value of $20, and the property of Mr. W. S. Hollins, of Manchester, was stolen from him.

Mr. Hollins testified that his mule was taken from his stable Sunday night or early Monday. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Dickerson testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

MAKING A MODERN PLAY.
Months, if Not Years, Are Needed for Its Evolution.

At Least Has Been the Case Since Shakespeare Dashed Off 'The Merry Wives' to Order—Belasco and De Mille in Their Firm-House Study.

Bronson Howard, whose "Shenandoah" has brought him over $50,000 in royalties, would have to turn out a play a week to meet the demands of the market. He has been at it for months, and he has been at it for months.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Howard testified that he had been making a modern play. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

NO MONEY FOUND.
Hay on Which Rosenditcher Was Found Carefully Searched.

Yesterday morning Commonwealth Attorney Thomas, Sheriff Southard and Detective Southard went to the Rosenditcher place to make a search of the hay on which Rosenditcher was found. The search was made, but no money was found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

Mr. Rosenditcher testified that he had been riding his mule when it was stolen. He at once notified Chief of Police Lincoln, of Manchester, Monday morning about 11 o'clock. He received a telephone message from the police headquarters notifying him that his mule had been found.

DEATHS.

AMBER—Died, at his residence, 2200 N. 1st St., at 11:30 A. M., August 26, 1890, at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Amber, aged 78 years.

CRUMP—Died, Tuesday, August 26, at 4:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Crump, aged 78 years.

MILLER—Died, August 26, at 1:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Miller, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WILCOX—Died, Monday evening, August 26, at 10:30 P. M., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, aged 78 years.

WEATHER FORECAST.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.—Forecast for the 27th: Partly cloudy, with showers of rain, and a strong wind from the north.

STATE OF THERMOMETER.

Time	Barometer	Thermometer
8 A. M.	30.0	70
12 M.	30.0	75
4 P. M.	30.0	80
8 P. M.	30.0	75
12 M.	30.0	70

MARKET INTELLIGENCE.

MINNIE B. ALLEN, August 27, 1890.

Commodity	Price
Wheat	1.25
Corn	1.00
Oats	.75
Barley	.80
Rye	.90
Flour	4.00
Sugar	12.00
Coffee	15.00
Tea	20.00
Cocoa	18.00
Chocolate	25.00
Candy	30.00
Ice cream	35.00
Butter	40.00
Eggs	45.00
Milk	50.00
Cheese	55.00
Ham	60.00
Beef	65.00
Pork	70.00
Lard	75.00
Oil	80.00
Gas	85.00
Electric	90.00
Water	95.00
Gasoline	100.00
Alcohol	105.00
Vinyl	110.00
Acetic	115.00
Formic	120.00
Benzoic	125.00
Salicylic	130.00
Stearic	135.00
Palmitic	140.00
Myristic	145.00
Capric	150.00
Lauroic	1